WORKING WITH CULTURALLY & LINGUISTICALLY DIVERSE COMMUNITIES AROUND TEENAGE PREGNANCY

Join us as we explore teenage pregnancies in culturally and linguistically diverse communities in South Australia. We will explore:

- › how and why the pregnancies are happening
- › strategies to support young CALD women

Guest Speaker: Zakiyyah Muhammad-Suraju

Zakiyyah is the Director of SA Pregnancy and Parenting Counselling Services. Zakiyyah has worked with some of the most vulnerable members of our community, such as women and their families who have been affected by domestic violence, FGM, sex work, drug related problems, sexual assault and PTSD.

Panel members include:

- › Zakiyyah Muhammad-Suraju (Director, SA Pregnancy and Parenting Counselling Services)
- › Leah Sarkanj (Social Worker, Multicultural Youth SA)
- › Cece Hylton-Dei (Support Services Worker, PEACE Multicultural Services)

We will also hear from young women in the community.
