

LGBTI CULTURAL SAFETY AND RESPECT WORKFORCE TRAINING PACKAGE

Creating and sustaining a workplace that values and celebrates sexual and gender diversity has far reaching benefits for all of the stakeholders in your organisation. By providing a culture of safety and respect for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Intersex (LGBTI) employees, clients or other stakeholders, your organisation as a whole will benefit from a culture that values and upholds diversity of all kinds.

SHine SA is the first and only South Australian organisation to be awarded Rainbow Tick Accreditation for LGBTI Inclusive practice. We are also respected for our education and training, making us ideally placed to train your staff on LGBTI Cultural Safety and Respect.

TRAINING OUTCOMES

- > A clear understanding of the definitions and concepts around LGBTI communities
- > An awareness of assumptions, values and beliefs regarding LGBTI people and communities
- > Knowledge of Anti-discrimination laws in SA (and recourse)
- > How to create a safe and inclusive environment in the workplace for LGBTI people
- > An understanding of how to use inclusive and respectful language
- > An understanding of the intersectionality of LGBTI and other identities
- > Knowledge of where to find further resources and support services

WHEN Friday, 24 June 2016, 9am – 12.30pm

WHERE SHine SA, 64c Woodville Rd, Woodville (parking off Bower St)

COST $75 per person (Student and group discounts available upon application)

Morning tea provided.

REGISTRATION Click here to register

ENQUIRIES Janiece Pope / janiece.pope@shinesa.org.au or 8300 5323