

YARNING UP FORUM

Sex, Drugs and Mental Health – It's Everybody's Business!

15–16 JUNE 2016

OVERVIEW

The Yarning Up forum aims to bring together workers and community members to share and promote the quality of work and research being done in the areas of Sexual Health, Mental Health/Social and Emotional Wellbeing, and Drugs and Alcohol. The forum will allow networking with statewide service providers, facilitate the development of collaborative opportunities between agencies, and reflect the importance of a holistic approach to Aboriginal health.

ABSTRACTS

We are currently seeking abstracts from people working within the above areas, and sponsorship is available to assist with the cost of attending for Aboriginal people who live/work in South Australia.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- People who work with Aboriginal young people
- People who work with Aboriginal people in the areas of Sexual Health, Mental Health/Social and Emotional Wellbeing, and Drugs and Alcohol
- People who work in Aboriginal health
- Aboriginal community members who are interested in learning about these areas, or who feel this may be relevant to them

SPONSORSHIP

Limited sponsorships will be available to assist with travel, accommodation and registration costs. See website for further details.
