

We warmly invite you to the:

Indaba HIV Website Official Launch

Please join us for the official launch of Indaba HIV, a website created to provide basic and practical information as well as relevant resources for women living with HIV in South Australia. Indaba also highlights important information for service providers to help them meet the needs of women living with HIV.

When: Thursday, 17 November 2016
12.45pm - 1.30pm

Where: Australasian HIV/AIDS Conference
Riverbank Room 7
Adelaide Convention Centre

We would love to see you there to help us celebrate the launch of this wonderful and important resource.
