

SEXUAL HEALTH LITERACY AND CLITERACY IN PRACTICE: A CLINICAL UPDATE

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WEBINAR

- WHO SHOULD ATTEND?
Health professionals with a clinical interest in sexual and reproductive health.
- WHEN?
9TH AUGUST 6-7.30PM in NSW, VIC, ACT, TAS, QLD 5.30-7PM in SA, NT AND 4-5.30pm in WA
- RACGP CPD accredited
This education activity will provide CPD point - readings supplied
- TICKETS
Please purchase your ticket through this LINK
- Cost $100 (fulltime work) or $60 (parttime work/ student) Includes 1 clitoris model see picture

Anatomical Education & Family Planning NT

This update hosted by Family Planning is exciting interactive online professional development for GPs, nurses, midwives, doctors, physiotherapists, and psychosexual therapists with a clinical interest in reproductive and sexual health.

The clinical update will focus on female sexual response and wellbeing with presentations, case studies and Q&A with experts. Real time, online delivery enables you to participate from any location.

A/ Professor Suzanne Belton RN RM BSoc Sc (Hons) PhD is your host

Professor Helen O'Connell AO MD Mmed MBBS FRACS(Urology) FAICD PhD is widely published on the clitoral body and is a global leader in women's urological anatomy.

Dr Ea Mulligan BMBS BMedSci(Hons) MHealthAdmin PhD FRACGP FRACMA FACHSE is a GP surgeon with experience in women's primary health and member of the Australian Lesbian Medical Association.

Penny Kenchington MNsg (NP), Grad Dip PH, Grad Dip Hth Man, Grad Cert Forensic Nsg, Dip Nsg, is a Nurse Practitioner with more than 25 yrs in sexual and reproductive health nursing. She is a Vice President of Australasian Society for HIV, Viral Hepatitis and Sexual Health Medicine.