AUTISTIC

GAY or PANSEXUAL MEN (CIS or TRANS)

and/or NON-BINARY (PERSON)

Greetings. My name is Resh. I am a coloured (Indian) autistic gay cis man and non-binary person. My pronouns are he/him/his and they/them/theirs. I also identify as asexual, aromantic, demisexual and sapiosexual. I am currently enrolled in a PhD degree at Flinders University.

My PhD project wants to understand the experiences of autistic gay or pansexual men (cis or trans) and/or non-binary people by talking to them about their life stories. The project will help policymakers, practitioners and researchers to better understand and cater for the diverse and unique needs autistic gay or pansexual men (cis or trans) and/or non-binary people in Australia.

You must also be 18 years and older, can communicate in English language (verbal or written) and live in South Australia (rural or metropolitan). If you are interested and willing to help me with my project, please email me at resh.ramasamy@flinders.edu.au or phone or text me on 0450 671 252.

NOTE: You can still take part in the project if you are gender and sexual fluid, meaning you identify with other/multiple sexual and gender identities like myself alongside your gay or pansexual man (cis or trans) and/or non-binary identity.
