

DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES Pride AWARD

Whether it is through community leadership, pursuing inclusion in society or outstanding achievements in their field, LGBTIQ+ young people make incredible contributions to South Australia. This award aims to shine the light on the accomplishments of young LGBTIQ+ South Australians who inspire the people around them and strive to make South Australia a better place.

This Award is open to all LGBTIQ+ young people up to 29 years of age in South Australia. Nominations of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, people living with a disability and those from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds are encouraged to help celebrate the full diversity of LGBTIQ+ communities.

The Award recognises contributions to LGBTIQ+ communities and to society as a whole, including leadership and exceptional performance.
